

Electoral enrolment

for federal, state and local government elections in Victoria

Use this form to • enrol to vote or • change your residential or postal address or • change your name on the electoral roll

IMPORTANT — Please read the information on this page before you start to fill in the form

Enrolment and voting

Why should you enrol and vote?

All eligible people are required to enrol and vote in federal, state and local government elections. You may be fined if you don't.

When should you enrol?

If you are not on the roll when a federal election is called, you may not have time to enrol to vote. ENROL NOW.

Are you eligible?

You are eligible to enrol and vote if you:

- are an Australian citizen, or a British subject who was enrolled on 25 January 1984 (and – for Victorian elections only – if you were a British subject enrolled between 26 October 1983 and 25 January 1984 inclusive); and
- are 18 years or older; and
- have lived at your address for at least one month.

You may enrol when you are 17, but you cannot vote until you are 18.

Special enrolment

Contact the Victorian Electoral Commission for more information and special application forms if you:

- have no fixed address
- are temporarily overseas
- are in prison
- are physically incapable of signing your name
- are working in Antarctica
- cannot attend a polling place on polling day
- believe that having your address shown on a publicly available roll may endanger your safety or that of your family.

What happens when you return your form?

Your application is checked and your name and address is placed on the electoral roll for federal, state and local government elections if you are eligible.

If you have not received written confirmation of your enrolment within three weeks of applying, please call the Australian Electoral Commission on 13 23 26.

Authorisation to collect the information on this form is contained in the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 and the Victorian Electoral Act 2002.

Who has access to your enrolment information

The Australian Electoral Commission and the Victorian Electoral Commission exchange electoral information under a joint roll arrangement to update electoral rolls. Access to electoral information on the joint roll differs under the respective Commonwealth and Victorian electoral laws.

The general public

The electoral roll can be inspected at any Australian Electoral Commission office or the office of the Victorian Electoral Commission. Only names and addresses are provided, though the addresses of silent electors are not disclosed on the publicly available roll.

The Commonwealth of Australia

Under the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918, enrolment information is given to –

- Members of Parliament and registered political parties – includes title, name and address, postal address, date of birth and gender.
- Candidates for House of Representatives elections.
- The electoral authorities of those states and territories that have entered into a joint roll arrangement with the Commonwealth – includes title, name and address, postal address, date of birth and gender of electors in other states and territories.
- Approved medical research and public health screening programs – includes name and address, gender and age range – minimum span 2 years.
- Australian government agencies such as Centrelink, the Australian Taxation Office and the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade – may include name and address, date of birth and gender to assist in investigation and prevention of breaches of the law, or protection of public revenue. A full list of agencies entitled to this information is available from www.aec.gov.au and the Australian Electoral Commission.

The State of Victoria

Under the Victorian Electoral Act 2002, enrolment information is available to –

- Members of Parliament, registered political parties and election candidates. This information includes name, address, date of birth and gender.
- The Juries Commission under the Juries Act 2000 and local governments under the Local Government Act 1989.
- Other organisations – in limited circumstances. However, before releasing enrolment information, the Victorian Electoral Commission must weigh up public interest arguments with privacy considerations and consult with the Privacy Commissioner. A full list of agencies receiving enrolment information is available from www.vec.vic.gov.au and the Victorian Electoral Commission.
