St Kilda Esplanade Arts & Crafts Market
Governance & Management Review

Are you interested in the
St Kilda Esplanade Arts & Crafts Market?
Have your say!

The St Kilda Arts & Crafts Market was established in 1970 as an arts incubator and opportunity for the sale of arts and crafts produced by the local artists' community. The market occurs every Sunday and is an iconic and popular destination in Melbourne.

The Esplanade Market review was conducted to provide an independent and objective assessment of the management and governance associated with the Market.

Consultation has been conducted with key stakeholders and benchmarking with other markets. Council has received the review findings and is asking for public comment to gain feedback about its proposed implementation plan.

Copies of the St Kilda Esplanade Arts & Crafts Market Governance & Management Review and Report are available on Council's website: www.portphillip.vic.gov.au/esplanade_market_review or upon request from Cynthia Neville on 9209 6530 or cneville@portphillip.vic.gov.au and a copy will be sent to you.

Copies are also available to be read at any of the public libraries or Town Halls in the City of Port Phillip.

Please forward your responses to Cynthia Neville City of Port Phillip, Private Bag 3, St Kilda 3182, or via email on cneville@portphillip.vic.gov.au by COB Wednesday October 21.
