

Cultural Development Fund Successful Applications 2004/05

Organisation	Description	Project title	Grant
Creative Ministries Network	Four St Kilda based choirs will join in a concert for peace, on the 60th anniversary of the atomic bomb dropped on Hiroshima.	"Sing War No More"	$2,600.00
Christ Church Community Centre	A new writers workshop which has been designed to encourage people from various backgrounds to write. This project will offer people the opportunity to bring into the public arena issues related to their life journey.	"The Orchid Project"	$3,000.00
City of Voices Community Theatre	Three performance seasons will be provided by the City of Voices. Back to Our Roots will draw on the company's skills in reworking vaudeville - with a contemporary theme.	"Back to Our Roots"	$3,000.00
Bo J Svoronos	This project is a forum which will highlight grassroots text and performance by local artists and residents.	"The Play Write Sessions"	$6,500.00
Mayhem Cabaret	Held over three nights, Mayhem Cabaret will present 20 different acts interpreting the theme "Into the Wild".	"Into the Wild"	$5,000.00
Born in a Taxi	Going Byezees' will see Born in a Taxi collaborate with Rawcus to present a performance season at Theatreworks based on the theme of death and ritual.	"Going Byezees"	$10,000.00
Serbian Art Association Melbourne Victoria Inc	The Serbian Art Association of Melbourne will present a group of artists, dancers, musicians, and poets perform in a cabaret performance. They envision this performance will demonstrate a cultural bridge between the Serbian and other cultures.	"Introducing the Serbian Art Association (SAA) through a cabaret"	$2,500.00
Elizabeth Sargeant	Bringing Books Alive will produce a small book and CD for young children. This book will be presented during story times at libraries within the City of Port Phillip.	"Bringing Books Alive"	$6,000.00
Theatreworks	The creative and professional development of a partnership between Gospel Australia Music Association and Magnormos which invites participation through performances, symposiums and workshops.	"And the Beat Goes On"	$7,000.00
Common Ground P/L	A music theatre piece inspired by stories from female City of Port Phillip residents who have suffered in war.	"Songs of Captivity"	$5,900.00
Overload Poetry Inc.	A Victorian festival which showcases poets, spokenword artists as well as artists of other disciplines including music, dance and visual art.	"2004 Overload Poetry Festival"	$4,000.00

Cultural Development Fund Successful Applications 2004/05

Organisation	Description	Project title	Grant
RCTVA - Russian Cultural and TV Association	The production and presentation of 52 episodes of a Russian television program.	"Sputnik -TV Programs on Channel 31"	$7,000.00
Zestman Productions	Bit Byte Beat is a multimedia installation that, through community participation, produces random sounds, such as heartbeats, that will be turned into music.	"Bit Byte Beat"	$4,500.00
Morf Inc	A presentation of the ever-changing cultural face of St Kilda, capturing it from the viewpoint of the local resident and its visitors. The project will culminate in a multimedia exhibition in 2005 and a catalogue of images which will be donated to the City of Port Phillip archives.	"Same Place, Different Face"	$10,000.00
Lentil as Anythink Cooperative	A monthly event that showcases poetry, performance, music, dance, digital art, films and anything that falls within the realms of artistic expression.	"Lentil Multimedia Bash"	$5,000.00
Linden - St Kilda Centre for Contemporary Arts	A series of forums and accompanying maps which present, explore and promote the City of Port Phillip's vibrant, diverse and historically rich cultural life.	"Local Knowledge - Series 3"	$6,000.00
Port Melbourne Historical and Preservation Society	The Project will document the history of the Port Melbourne street precinct bounded by Bridge, Evans, Farrell Streets and Williamstown Road from about 1868 to the present.	"History of the Street Precinct"	$2,300.00
St Kilda Cricket Club Inc	The research, writing, printing and publication of a 150 year history of the St Kilda Cricket Club.	"St Kilda Cricket Club 150th Anniversary - History and Memorabilia"	$5,000.00
White-Ant Press	To print, advertise and distribute a journal which promotes poetry and prose writers from the City of Port Phillip.	"Raising the Profile of 'White Ant'"	$4,000.00
Lentil as Anythink Cooperative	A monthly grassroots paper which provides local artists with an accessible publication space and informs Port Phillip community about forthcoming artistic events.	"Lentil Republic Magazine"	$2,000.00
Jewish Museum of Australia	An exhibition inspired by the Museum's vast collection, curated by the Museums' staff and team of volunteers, including stories and items donated by Port Phillip residents	"Stories from our collection - behind the scenes at the Jewish Museum"	$6,000.00
Southport Community Housing Group Inc	The creation and exhibition of a collection of paintings and drawings by marginalised and talented artists living in the South Port Community Housing Group.	"21 Today"	$3,000.00

Cultural Development Fund Successful Applications 2004/05

Organisation	Description	Project title	Grant
Bay Street Traders Committee of Management	An art display space will be established in the Coles Arcade Port Melbourne, with a linked website, quarterly art awards and placement of original works in local establishments.	"(Port Art) Space"	$5,000.00
Christ Church Mission Inc	The work will use photography, sound and voice to explore the inter-connections between people who live in St Kilda and result in a photography exhibition and sound installation at Christchurch.	"One Degree of Separation"	$5,000.00
CoPP Brass Band	The members of the City of Port Phillip Brass Band Inc practice fortnightly at the St Kilda life-saving club to gain expertise in rendition, in order to perform many community concerts throughout the year for the enjoyment of the citizens of Port Phillip.	"Performance of Community Concerts"	$2,000.00
Albert Park Secondary College	A photography program for Albert Park students which will explore the local environment and culminate in an exhibition.	"Supporting Artists in Schools Program"	$3,000.00
RCTVA - Russian Cultural and TV Association	A project which aims to preserve the history of the City of Port Phillip through the archiving of Sputnik video to dvd format. Provide access of these archives to the wider community, TV stations, researchers, students etc.	"Historical video archive of the CoPP for last 10 years"	$3,000.00