Supporting Information

The St Kilda Historical Society will engage with the community to record and document knowledge, stories and memorabilia about the extraordinary life of Mirka Mora. Mora's considerable contribution to the vitality of St Kilda through her murals in both Fitzroy Street (Tolarno) and Acland Street (Cosmos, now Readings), her life as a resident, neighbour, teacher, activist and artist will be highlighted and celebrated through story-telling and participatory techniques. The project will include interviews and recordings from friends, associates, local traders, and neighbours who knew Mora and will capture the inspiring stories of her life. The grant is proposed for its timeliness and desire to document Mirka Mora's impact on St Kilda.

Council Officers to consult with and seek to partner with the community to promote and recognise the impact that Mirka Mora has had on the City of Port Phillip. Council Officers to investigate options which the community believes appropriate to celebrate and commemorate Mirka Mora's life.
