Question from Councillor Makin:

There was an inquiry into Local Government funding and services commissioned by the State Government that was tabled in Parliament on 28 November 2024 and the Government response was tabled on 19 June 2025. Has there been advice back to the sector or to Council around the State Government progressing some of those recommendations, looking at the subject matter of cost shifting and funding?

Question from Councillor Cunsolo:

What is Council's approach to rough sleepers on bike paths, specifically around Beaconsfield Street and Fitzroy Street and are obstructions on bike paths is exempted under the Local Law for people experiencing homelessness?

Response:

Local Law Clause 42 - Camping on Council Land does technically apply in bike lanes and any section of the roadway, as well as the exemptions for people experiencing homelessness or with complex needs.

However, if someone is found sleeping on a bike path or roadway, Council Officers will intervene due to the immediate safety risks. Officers will take steps to ensure the person does not remain in that location, including implementing safety measures, contacting Victoria Police if necessary, and staying on site until Police arrived to assist in relocating the individual to a safer area.

Under Clause 43 – Furniture and Other Items on Council Land, any bedding or personal belongings obstructing the bike path or road may be removed.
