

Attachment I:
Cultural Development Fund 2017/18 Recommended Grants – 16 Projects

Project Name	Applicant	Art Form	Project Summary	Funded Amount	Amount Requested	Project location
1. St Kilda's Alright – The Exhibition	Brightspace Gallery	Visual Arts	A retrospective and contemporary exhibition at Brightspace consisting of a visually rich pastiche of paintings, drawings, memorabilia, photos, history, film and music – celebrating the history and contribution of Fred Negro one St Kilda's well known artists and residents. The project will include public cartooning workshops.	$9,700	$9,700	St Kilda
2. Unknown Neighbour	Ranters Theatre	Performance / Theatre	Australian premiere of an ongoing site-specific international collaboration between Ranters Theatre and South Korean performance collective Creative VaQi. The performance will be based at Theatre Works and in surrounding streets.	$10,000	$10,000	St Kilda
3. Desert 6:29pm	Red Stitch Actors Theatre	Performance / Theatre	A final creative development and world premiere season of 'Desert 6:29pm,' by emerging Australian playwright Morgan Rose. This new work will focus on the experiences of 'at risk' youth and their families and will held at Red Stitch Actors Theatre.	$10,000	$10,000	East St Kilda
4. Song For A Weary Throat	Rawcus Theatre Company	Performance / Theatre	Song For a Weary Throat is a new work created by Rawcus, a unique ensemble of artists with and without disability in collaboration with vocal ensemble the Invenio Singers. The show will premiere at Theatre Works.	$10,000	$10,000	St Kilda
5. Natural Order	Ossicle Duo	Music	A concert of contemporary art music exploring organic structures, systems, and symmetries in the natural world, which will include a new work by established Melbourne-based composer James Hullick. Performances will be held at Temperance Hall.	$5,914	$5,914	South Melbourne

Attachment I:
Cultural Development Fund 2017/18 Recommended Grants – 16 Projects

Project Name	Applicant	Art Form	Project Summary	Funded Amount	Amount Requested	Project location
6. EVER	Phillip Adams BalletLab	Multi-artform	A performance season at Temperance Hall of a new work by Phillip Adams BalletLab, in partnership with Melbourne Chamber Orchestra which fuses two important twentieth century chamber music works with contemporary dance performance.	$10,000	$10,000	South Melbourne
7. Greeks In Port	Port Melbourne Historical & Preservation Society	Heritage	An exhibition defining the 1970s 'opening up' of Port Melbourne Council to the community, with special emphasis on the Greek community that at that time comprised nearly a quarter of our population. The program will include a public talk relating to this part of Port Melbourne's history.	$500	$500	Port Melbourne
8. From Nature	Gasworks Arts Inc	Visual Arts	From Nature will exhibit organic sculptures designed by predominantly local artists, community groups and schools, in the parklands of Gasworks Arts Park. It is a free, family-friendly, accessible event.	$10,000	$10,000	Albert Park
9. Escape From Trash Mountain	Ben Anderson	Performance / Theatre	An interactive theatre experience developed for young people to be presented at Gasworks. Themes of sustainability will be highlighted and objects, sets and puppets will be built using 100% recycled materials, which the audience themselves will help to design.	$10,000	$10,000	Albert Park
10. Confined 9	The Torch	Visual Arts	A visual arts exhibition which aims to support Indigenous offenders to connect with the community through creativity and to promote the practice of culture in rehabilitation. The artists represent many Indigenous language groups from across Australia, and their cultural diversity will be expressed through the rich range of works on show.	$10,000	$10,000	St Kilda

Attachment I:
Cultural Development Fund 2017/18 Recommended Grants – 16 Projects

Project Name	Applicant	Art Form	Project Summary	Funded Amount	Amount Requested	Project location
11. By Way of Navigation	Emma Hamilton	Visual Arts	This exhibition at the Alliance Francaise Gallery will explore the disparities between our attempts to understand landscape through scientific calculation, mapping and photography, and our lived experiences.	$5,210	$5,210	St Kilda
12. Public Program – In Conversation	Theatre Works	Performance / Theatre	A new Public Program that will take City of Port Phillip audiences beyond the conventional theatre experience. This includes accessible theatre, and a new 'In Conversation Series,' exploring the artists' personal journey, hosted by TW founding member, playwright Hannie Rayson.	$9,000	$9,000	St Kilda
13. Imagining Laneways	Space2B	Visual Arts	A new public artwork, in a laneway behind Space2b. The work will be realised through a collaboration between local Indigenous, Anglo Australian and CALD artists involved with Space2b – a creative social enterprise supporting refugees and migrants.	$10,000	$10,000	East St Kilda
14. Recalling the Journey	Multicultural Arts Victoria	Writing /Heritage	The e-publishing and launch of volume 2 of 45-50 personal biographies by and about people who first arrived in Australia through the Port of Melbourne's Princes Pier and Station Pier and will be made available through local libraries.	$6,000	$10,000	South Melbourne
15. The Visitor	Justin Olstein	Multimedia / Film	The production of a short narrative film that sheds light on the issue of intergenerational transmission of Holocaust trauma from survivors to their descendants in the Port Phillip community. A public screening of the film and panel discussion on the topic will follow at the Jewish Museum of Australia.	$10,000	$10,000	East St Kilda/St Kilda

Attachment I:
Cultural Development Fund 2017/18 Recommended Grants – 16 Projects

Project Name	Applicant	Art Form	Project Summary	Funded Amount	Amount Requested	Project location
16. St Kilda and All That Jazz	Kaye Blum	Multimedia / Film	A filmic homage to St Kilda's significant jazz scene through its key venues and performers from the 1920s to today. A vintage soundtrack enhances a montage of archive images, memorabilia and commentary from local jazz personalities. Creatively combined, they will reveal the unsung story of St Kilda's important contribution to Australian jazz.	$10,000	$10,000	St Kilda
TOTAL				$136,324	$140,324	