

Notice of Intention to make local law

PROPOSED LOCAL LAW NO.1 2023 (COMMUNITY AMENITY)

The Local Government Act 2020 provides for Council to make local laws which remain in effect for a period of ten years, unless revoked sooner by Council. The Local Law No. 1 2013 (Community Amenity) ceases to operate on 31 August 2023 and must be replaced.

Notice is hereby given pursuant to the provisions of Section 71 of the Local Government Act 2020 that at its meeting on 1 March 2023 Port Phillip City Council resolved to release the proposed Community Amenity Local Law 2023 for public submissions.

The purpose and intended effect of the Local Law is to provide for the peace, order, and good governance of the City of Port Phillip, in a manner that:

- supports and enables the delivery of Council's core strategies and policies
- is practical and safe to implement
- reflects the value our community places on liveability and amenity
- responds to known and foreseeable amenity issues
- recognises the value of a partnered approach to managing the amenity of the municipality and
- supports Council's role as a regulator and enforcement agency by ensuring the local laws are necessary, consistent, compliant, enforceable, accessible, efficient, accountable, transparent, current and lawful.

A copy of the proposed local law may be obtained from Council Offices at the following locations:
