

Freedom of Information Statement 2025

Introduction

City of Port Phillip (the Council) adheres to the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act). While councils, unlike other agencies, are not required to publish a statement in accordance with section 7 of the FOI Act, this document functions as a section 7 statement by providing the community with information concerning the Council's operations, functions and documents. This statement:

- describes the functions of the Council,
- lists the legislation that Council works to,
- describes how the Council makes decisions,
- lists categories of documents that the Council maintains,
- lists information that is available for public inspection,
- lists the Council's policies and strategies,
- explains how to make an application under the FOI Act,
- explains who within Council has responsibility for FOI requests,
- provides information concerning advisory (and other) committees, and
- lists Port Phillip's public libraries, their locations and opening hours.

What the FOI Act requires of Council

The Freedom of Information (FOI) Act, which prompted the creation of this document, essentially requires the following of Council:

- to provide for people's right to access Council's documents, as far as is allowed by the Act,
- to publicise certain information concerning the operations of the Council,
- to provide for people to request to amend inaccurate, incomplete, misleading or out of date information held by Council that relates to them,
- to provide people with the right to appeal against a decision made under the Act.

Council vigorously supports the requirements of the FOI Act. Council actively promotes accountable and responsive government on behalf of the Port Phillip community.

Particulars and functions of the Council

Particulars

The City of Port Phillip respectfully acknowledges the Traditional Owners of this land, the people of the Kulin Nations. We pay our respect to their Elders, past and present. We acknowledge and uphold their continuing relationship to this land.

The City of Port Phillip is located on the northern shore of Port Phillip Bay, south of the Melbourne Central Business District and covers an area of 20.7 square kilometres.

The City was established on 22 June 1994, following a State Government review of Victorian local government boundaries.

Port Phillip is well served by a number of varied and substantial retail, cultural, entertainment and leisure precincts, as well as significant office, industrial, warehousing and manufacturing districts.

Nine councillors represent three wards across the City to make up the Port Phillip Council.

Functions

The following functions of the Council are prescribed by the Local Government Act 1989:

- (a) advocating and promoting proposals which are in the best interests of the local community;
- (b) planning for and providing services and facilities for the local community;

- (c) providing and maintaining community infrastructure in the municipal district;
- (d) undertaking strategic and land use planning for the municipal district;
- (e) raising revenue to enable the Council to perform its functions;
- (f) making and enforcing local laws;
- (g) exercising, performing and discharging the duties, functions and powers of Councils under the Local Government Act 1989 and other Acts;
- (h) any other function relating to the peace, order and good government of the municipal district.

Decision-making and community consultation

Decision-making

Primary responsibility for making decisions rests with the elected members as a group – the Council. The Council has also delegated some decision-making responsibilities to committees and staff.

The Council as the decision-making body, meets in the evening of the first and third Wednesday of each month at an Ordinary Meeting of Council. The Council Meeting venues alternate between the St Kilda Town Hall and the Port Melbourne Town Hall . Locations and times of Ordinary Meetings of Council can be found on Council's website.

In addition to the Ordinary Meeting of Council in the evening of the first and third Wednesday of each month, the Council holds a Planning Committee Meeting. The Planning Committee Meeting is held in the St Kilda Town Hall, generally on the evening of the last Wednesday of the month. Agendas for the Meetings can be found on Council's website.

While Councillors are democratically elected and have a statutory mandate to govern as a Council, this does not override the importance of continuous involvement by, and accountability to, the community.

Community consultation

The Local Government Act 2020 and other legislation stipulate when councils must undertake a consultation process. Port Phillip actively supports compliance with its legislative requirements and also conducts broad consultation on all important projects where it is thought that the community has the capacity to influence the outcome of a project.

The Home Page on Council's website contains a Have Your Say section. Have Your Say is an interactive web portal that advises the community of current consultations and facilitates on-line discussion and feedback.

From time to time members of the community are able to apply for membership to reference groups, panels and committees established to provide specific advice to Council.

Categories of documents that are maintained by the Council

The following documents are maintained by the Council:

- policies, procedures, strategies, plans, manuals and guidelines;
- service agreements, contracts, bank guarantees, Certificates of Title, leases and licences;
- registers required by the Local Government Act 1989;
- tender material;
- records of administration such as correspondence and working documents;
- statistics and data relating to Council's activities;
- applications for permits and permits issued;
- cultural and heritage records;
- documents created for the provision of community programs and services;
- audio-visual recordings of Ordinary Meetings of Council;
- annual and financial reports;
- enforcement documents;
- animal registration documents;
- health premises registration documents,
- maternal and child health records;
- records of community consultation and feedback;
- training material;
- records of the internal operations of the organisation, such as in human resources files;

- mailing lists;
- grant applications; and
- agendas and minutes of Council/committee meetings.

Making a Freedom of Information application

Following is an outline of the procedure to follow to make a request for access to a document via the FOI Act.

FOI applications must be in writing

An FOI application must be made in writing.

Council has an FOI application FOI Request For Information Form which you may find helpful to use. It is not a requirement under the FOI Act that the form be used but it is a requirement that the application be in writing.

You can authorise another person in writing to make a request on your behalf.

If you are unable to submit your FOI application in writing, please call ASSIST on 03 9209 6777 or if you are deaf or have a hearing or speech impairment, contact us via National Relay Service in two steps:

3. Click to choose your preferred NRS access point and
4. Ask for ASSIST - Port Phillip at 03 9209 6777

FOI applications must be clear

In your application you should clearly identify which document/s you are seeking.

Please keep in mind that Council's FOI Officer is not required to be a subject matter expert in the material you seek and so the document/s need to be described in plain language.

If Council's FOI Officer cannot clearly identify the document/s you are seeking, they will contact you to request clarification of your request. You are then required to provide clarification to enable the FOI Officer to search for and locate the document/s you are seeking. Your FOI application cannot be processed unless it is clear.

If you are seeking documents spanning a certain period you will be required to specify a start and end date for the creation of the documents to enable the FOI Officer to tailor their document search to the relevant period.

If you require documents containing your personal information you will be required to provide Council with evidence of your identity.

Where to send an FOI application

You can mail your application to:

The FOI Officer
City of Port Phillip
99A Carlisle Street
St Kilda, VIC. 3182

Or

Hand deliver your application to Reception at the St Kilda Town Hall.

Or

Email your application, attention to “the Freedom of Information Officer” to:

helpfoi@portphillip.vic.gov.au

An application fee is required

The FOI Act requires that a request for access to documents made under the Act be accompanied by an application fee.

From 1 July 2026 – 30 June 2027, the application fee is $34.50. Please note that fees and charges are set by legislation and tend to increase in the new Financial Year.

If payment of an application fee would cause you financial hardship, you may request the application fee to be reduced or waived. If you apply for the application fee to be reduced or waived you will need to supply evidence that payment would cause you hardship. Evidence such as a copy of a Pension Concession or Health Care Card is acceptable.

Access charges in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Access Charges) Regulations 2004 apply to FOI applications. Access charges are in addition to the application fee.

You will be supplied with a statement of any applicable charges as your request progresses. The amount varies between FOI requests because the scale of requests, and therefore the resources required, varies.

A summary of rates for the 2025/2026 Financial Year is as follows:

Search fees —	$25.90 per hour or part thereof
Copying Fees —	20 cents per black and white A4 page; $1.00 per colour A4 page
Other charges —	including transcription and colour copying -Reasonable costs incurred by the agency

If it is estimated that the access charges may exceed the sum of $70, a deposit payment will be required. The FOI Act requires Council to seek the applicable deposit of the total estimated costs from the applicant prior to processing a request. If a deposit is paid, Council has a fresh 30 days from receipt of payment to make its decision on the request for access.

How long does an FOI application take to process?

Council processes FOI applications as quickly as possible. Council is required to provide a decision in response to an application within 30 days after the application becomes valid. This timeframe can extend to 45 days if consultation with third parties is required before a decision in regard to access can be made.

Who is responsible within Council for the initial receipt of, and action upon, FOI requests?

Council has staff fulfilling the role of Freedom of Information (FOI) Officer. These staff process FOI applications, under designation, on behalf of the Chief Executive Officer.

Council staff who have initial receipt of an FOI application are likely to be a Freedom of Information Officer (where applications are emailed to Helpdesk-FOI), ASSIST staff (in instances where applications are hand-delivered), or Information staff (in instances where applications are posted).

An FOI application can be received by any member of Council staff. If the request is made in hardcopy format they must then ensure the application is forwarded to Information staff for registration into Council's document management system. Information staff then forward applications to an Freedom Of Information Officer for processing.

If the application is made by email, the Council staff officer must ensure that the application is forwarded to Helpdesk-FOI so that a Freedom Of Information Officer can register it into Council's document management system.

FOI applicants are then advised the file number that relates to their application.
